

Every winter, Jack Wheaton suffers from severely dry skin which often results in inflammation in small areas like between his fingers and on the inside of his elbows. For two years now, you have been preparing this hydrocortisone stick to allow for easy application. As a result, Jack's compliance with the hydrocortisone has improved, resulting in a shorter duration of his symptoms. He has obtained a new prescription which is given below.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA at CHAPEL HILL
Pharmaceutical Care Lab Room 204 Beard Hall	School of Pharmacy; CB #7360 Chapel Hill, NC 27599-7360
Patient's Name Jack Wheaton	Date      day of lab
Address 19994 Old River Drive	Phone # 229-3459
R<sub>x</sub>	Hydrocortisone 2.5%
	Apply QID to inflamed areas
	Disp. One 45 gram tube
NR / Refill 1 x
Sig. _____ M.D.	Sig. Connie Marcum M.D.
"Product Selection Permitted"	"Dispense as Written"
Connie Marcum, MD DEA # AM1833626 3030 Lighthouse Road., Chapel Hill, NC 27514 (919) 455-4555	